New York State Bill to Provide $20 a Month in Addition to U. S. Allowance for Disabled

Many Measures Indorsed by the Legislative Committee; False Use of War Emblem Assailed

Legionnaires of New York State will be interested in the recommendations of their State Legislative Committee of their State Legislative Committee, made public yesterday through Francis L. Rebins jr., secretary.

The Gillett-Towner bill repealing the section of the state income tax providing that government salaries must be deducted from the exemption allowance is approved.

A bill is to be drafted which will provide for an additional compensation of $20 a month from the state for all veterana totally disabled, to be continued through the same period as the government's allowance of $80 monthly. Married men with dependents will receive pro rate allotments.

The Dedge-Fox measure making it a miademeanor for non-members to wear the Legion emblem is indorsed, as is the Blodgett bill, providing for the recording of discharges with county clerks, with the provision that such recorded discharges shall be considered competent evidence in any proceeding in the state. This allows for legitimate certified copies of discharges lost.

Would Consolidate Bills

A consolidation of the bills fathered same purpose.

Several bills introduced by Assembly-man Cuvillier, also legionnaire are indorsed, among them one providing that property bought with a bonus, indorsed, among them one providing that property bought with a bonus, compensation or insurance be exempted. Others allow children of veterans to be admitted to state institutions for the blind, exempt disabled veterans from the poll tax and provide that municipalities may appropriate funds to veterans to observe Memorial Day.

Bills providing for duplicate war medals where a loss occurs, asking for $5,000 for a special honor roll of New York men cited for bravery and providing for the dispensation of funds of National Guard organizations are referred to the Military Affairs Committee of the Legion.

Only two measured are disapproved, both of them Toymer-Gardner bills. One would admit law students who saw service to practice without examination, the other would allow men in the military or naval service to be registered up to the day before election day.

registered up to the day before election day.

The legislative committee's report will be presented at Albany by Samuel Aronwitz, of that city, a member of the commistee. Other members are Henry L. Stimson, of New York, chairman; F. L. Robbins jr., New York; J. Leslie Kincaid, Syracuse; J. Scott Button, Schenectady; William G. Mc-Adoo jr., New York; C. W. Knappenberg, Dansvilley A. T. Smith, Rochester; Clarkson Balsch, Buffalo; Robert Greenfield, Mount Verhon, and Isidoz Neuwirth, Brocklyn.

Bonus Battle Still On

The hearing before the Ways and Means Committee of Congress this week has produced more than the anticipated amount of squabbling between rival veterans' organizations, but some solution unquescionably will grow out of it. In the meantime The Tribune's straw vote on the question probably will indicate forcefully just what the sentiment is in this part of the country.

A memorial service will be held by members of David W. E. Allen Post 5, of the Bronx, within a few days. The Rev. David Roswell Wylie, post chaplain, will officiate.

Monthly dances and entertalnments are to be held by John Purroy Mitchel Post 143 in its clubhouse, at 622 East 183d Street.

Tribune Taking Vote on Bonus

Frequent charges have been made by Legionnaires who favor the proposed national bonus that those who oppose it are an insignificant minority. The opponents of the measure, on the other hand, have insisted that they speak for a vast number of exservice men and women. Therefore The Tribune will undertake to settle this dispute definitely.

A straw vote will be taken by this newspaper, and the result of the balloting will be published in this column one week from today. The voting must be done by individuals, and not by posts as a unit. It is necessary to answer only one question, as follows:

Do you favor a bonus?

Mould Consolidate Bills

A consolidation of the bills fathered by Assemblymen Carroll and Trahan will be suggested by the committee. One provides that municipalities may appropriate famile to be expended unseer the direction of the Legion to aid distressed veterans. The other establishes a state fund to be managed by a board of Legion members for the same purpose.

Several bills introduced by Assembly man Cuvillier, also last man covillier, also last man covillier.

While the fairness of Eugene M. Travis, State Comptroller, had a lot to de with the extension granted to veterans, who will not be compelled to file state income tax returns until April 15, it was to the untiring work of two Legionnaires that prompt action can be credited. Ferdinand D. Sanford and George K. Shields, of the 306th Infantry Post, nave been in communication with state officials for several days, and finally their recommendations brought about the extension. The 306th Infantry Post also will campaign for the repeal of the obnoxious law. While the fairness of Eugene M.
